

Colorado Hispanic History Scavenger Hunt

<http://exhibits.historycolorado.org/la-gente>

What is the oldest county courthouse in Colorado?

Which explorer visited what is now Trinidad, Colorado, and the Purgatoire and Arkansas Rivers?

What are the names of the two priests who were sent in 1776 to find a new route linking Santa Fe and California?

Between 1900 and 1930, how many people migrated from Mexico to Colorado?

In Colorado, the Bracero Program primarily focused on what two crops?

Between the years 1910 and 1920, what happened in Mexico?

After the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, people living in the land newly claimed by the United States could choose to move down to Mexico or stay where they were and become U.S. citizens. What percentage of people chose to stay?

What do you call traditional Mexican horsemen?

List three plants and/or animals that were introduced to Europe from the Americas.

List three plants and/or animals that were introduced to the Americas from Europe, African and Asia.

What language do the people of almost every country in Central and South America speak today?

What river runs through Pueblo, Colorado?

What is another name for the Acequia in San Luis?

What was the name of the program that began in 1942 that imported temporary workers from Mexico because of a labor shortage after World War II?

When did Mexico win its independence from Spain?

The Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo in 1848 was a document that outlined the end of which war?

Felipe Baca ran a general store in which Colorado town?

Who was the founder of the first mercantile business in Colorado in San Luis, Colorado?

Casimiro Barela helped to write what?

What was the name of Kit Carson's wife?

Who was appointed governor of New Mexico in 1598?

During the Mexican-American War, the U.S. Army gathered at which fort?

The United States paid Mexico how much money as part of the agreement in the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo?

What is the name of the woman who helped run Fort El Pueblo?

Bernardo de Miera y Pacheco made what?

Where is the Stations of the Cross Shrine located?

Since there were not enough priests to minister to the people in the San Luis Valley, the people established these meeting houses for people to meet and pray.

The land of Colorado was claimed by two different countries in 1700. What were those countries?

Who was the first territorial governor of Colorado?

What is the Spanish word for field?

What does the word mestizo mean?

What do you call a beehive-shaped outdoor oven made of adobe?

In return for agreeing to the Colorado Constitution, Casimiro Barela asked that the Constitution be printed in Spanish for how many years?

Francisco Vasquez de Coronado was sent to find what?

What is the name of the agreement given to Narcisco Beaubien in 1843?

What area includes what is now central and south Mexico, Belize, Guatemala, and western portions of Honduras and El Salvador?